Madanda, Mr. David Mpiima. The project closed in 2012. Power point projectors and laptops were stolen from the store. The custodian was held responsible.

School Finance

The School develops an annual budget but we have not received any finances since the incentive initiative. The budget for 2014/2015 was requested by the college on short notice and was submitted a copy is attached. See Appendix XIII.

Appendix XI
School’s Accounts
The School has the following accounts in the respective banks. Some are project accounts:

Achievements during my term of office

School of Women and Gender Studies

The school under my leadership and the support of all academic and support staff we were able to accomplish the following:

1. The School Status
   The Department received a School status and Senate approved three departments including Men’s Studies Department.

2. Successful Collaborations
   - The School had successful collaborations with various universities including with institutions of higher learning from the USA, Nordic Countries, Africa and Europe.

3. International Conference
   The School had a Successful International Conference from 5th – 7th November 2014. Outcomes of the Conference teams have been formed to carry forward the work. The list will be provided

4. International Short Course
The School hosted a short course on the Politics of Women’s Body. The Course was attended by students from Kenya, South Africa, Ethiopia and Finland.

5. International Students in our Programmes

The School registered PhD student from Rwanda.

The School registered Masters students from South Africa, Rwanda, Zimbabwe, Ethiopia, Southern Sudan, USA, and Finland.

6. Projects

7. The School handled more than Seven projects at as mentioned above.

6. Seminars and Dialogues

The School held several seminars and public dialogues. These were:

April 2007, Public Dialogue: Constitutional Court Ruling on Criminal Adultery: Gender Implications and Challenges”

July 2011 Policy Dialogue: Gender and the Return of IDPS in Northern Uganda

October 2011, Public Dialogue "Because I Am A Girl: So What About Boys?"

November 2012, Public Dialogue: to Mark the 16 Days of Activism Against Gender-Based Violence Theme: “From Peace in the Home to Peace in the Nation: End Violence against Women”.

April 2013, Public Dialogue on Marriage and Divorce Bill Marriage and Divorce Bill: Theme: Keeping the Dialogue Going”

March 2014, Public Dialogue: In Partnership with Men and Boys for Empowerment of Women and Girls In Uganda”

8. Networking with Civil Society

Networking is one the areas the School has undertaken, it’s capacity as the academic wing of the women’s movement. The School is consequently a member of the number of networks.